The shrewh politicians of each factions have stready given up the contest to the extent of admitting the cortainty of Lincoln's election. They can do no less. All New England is conceded to him without disputs. Neither Douglas nor Breckinridge has any more chance of carrying Connecticut or Rhode Island, than of being translated to Heaven without tasting death. The party in New Jersey is hopelessly divided—split through the middle—as it is in Pennsylvania. New York will give Lancous one hundred thousand more votes than to either of his competitors. In Ohio, at the late State Convention, a large minority of the delegates, representing a corresponding minority of the ranke and file of the organization, withdrew and nominated a ticket that will carry off a fourth of the Democratic strength, and give the State to the Republicans by a majority that has never been exceeded. In Indiana the Breck-inridgeites are half or nearly half the late spinning of the person of the pers

This being so, hew are the Demouracy to win? Breckinridge will carry California; but Lissona- already has Oregon. Douglas may carry Missour, and Breckinridge will get half or three-fourths of the States of the South. Where, thes, are the Democratic votes to come from? They are not to be had. The Republicans would have gone into the fight with assurances of victory if the opposition had remained unbroken. The rupture and the division in all the States heretofore set down as doubtful has made a certainty of what was before but a probability. Lancous will surely be elected. Thus early, if no new disposition of forces is effected, the compaign is decided—decided by

Introduction of Smare.—The fewa City Republican of last Wednesday says that Hon J. B. Grinnell passed through that town last week from the East to his home in Poweshelk county. He had been to Michigan for the purchase of abeep, and had bought 2,100 head. They are principally Merianos, but he secared some Leiby Princess and Plora. Plora and Patchen are doing the same thing over again. It is well to be cautious in your stakes on either animal. The shooting of Messra. Walton and Mathews—over whose bodies an inquest is now going on—bids fair to rival the Connery-Cunningham butlesque, as still involved in mystery. Nothing has transpired to directly implicate, either of Walton's step-sons, (the Jefferds boys) although is is avident enough that they both hated the murfered man and had made threats against his if. But it is noticeable that the indispensable "fast woman" figures in this tragedy, as she did in the Burdell murder, the Huntungton forgeries, and many another tale of city orime. Mrs. Walton may seeape from any punishment at the hands of the law, like her prototype Mrs. Cunningham-Burdel!; but, like the latter, and whether innocent or guilly, she will never essheep, and had bought 2,100 head. They are principally Merinos, but he secured some Leicesters and South-downs. Mr. G. already had some 800 on his ferm, which he says have realized him 75 per cent, on the money invested. This fact goes far to prove that sheep raising in Iowa is a prolitable business.

HORRIBLE Duava.—Mr. Thomas G. Rimalkin, a venerable inhabitant of Manos, Iowa, came to his death in a dreadful manner on Thursday, last. He was taking a walk in the evening near the grave yard, when he was suddenly attacked by a large and ferectious deg, which had been prowling around the neighborhood; and, although he made a strenuous resistance, before aid arrived he was so badly injured that he was unable to survive. The exhibition of the Great Eastern, despite anything that the papers may say to the contrary, is a gigantic failure. Not five hundred pesons visited her yesterday. Office compaign is working well. The Philadelphia Press cries out against the coalition agreed upon in Pennsylvania by the Convention of last week, and has called another Convention of last week, and has called another Convention to maintain the rights of Douglas. I think there will be no coalition in our own State. The Democratic party seems shattered for ever.

Gov. Seward has some great and many good qualities, and is the only genuine Democrat I ever knew. He really believes in equal rights and equal political franchises for every human being, which you and I hoth know is very rare faith. But he is wrong with regard to public expenditures, voting away money lavishly and sometimes unjusticably, secording to my notions. Nobridy ever imagined that he could give a corrupt vote; but he has a blind side toward the failings of others to this direction. He has thus attached to himself some friends whose support is a dead loss. He knows how decidedly I differ from himsen these matters, yet I should have voted for him as Chicago in preference to at least one other whose nomination was present there. There are estatement in all parties who share his one fault and lack his many redeeming virtues. Yours.

Shooting Affray at Warsaw.

(From the Quincy Whig of Saturday.)

We are informed that on the vessing of the 3d inst. Orndorff, a commission merchant at Warsaw, having some suspicion that all was not right with his wife, noticed her through the window reading some letters, which ahe deposited in a drawer on his coming in. He presended not to notice it, but after they had retired he made some excuse for getting up, and read the letters. They proved to be from one Robert Sterling, e clerk till lately, in the store of Johnson & Hunt. His worst suspicions were confirmed. In the letter he professed that he was the father of one of her children, and riged her to elope with him. Orndorff, taking his pistol, passed down to a saloon, where he knew Sterling was apt to apen his evenings to a late hour. THE QUEEN OF SPACE —as her passions the, hay she come to make her court a "sky." And learn that a crown looks mean and coron to be brazen brow of a wanton woman. Blondin on his Tight Rope Mr. Willis in the Home Journal, thu cribes M. Blondin's passage over the Niagar river, in the character of an Indian chief: "After being dressed in his flesh-col-tights, wampum apron, bead necklacs, moccasins, he came out (with his particungota, wampum apron, bead necklace, and moccasins, he came out (with his particularly uncombed sandy hair uncovered as yet by its crown of feathers, to look a little into the arrangements for his performance. For fifteen or twenty minutes the little Tecumseh was hopping about, trying the cords which held the ropes to the stanchions, eccking the pistel which was to be fired to asnounce his return, giving directions for the music, binding the ligatures of his balance-pole, and answering very morfilly all the jokes and questions of the lookers-on. In his motions, back and forward, he took no regular step; he simply bounded. Like a child's scap-bubble, the difficulty seemed to be to get to the ground—to keep from floating away. During all this time, of course, I had the ceasired opportunity for the study of his face. It was one which nineteen people out of twenty, on seeing it in a growd, would pass over as wholly uninteresting—the twentieth and more observant man giving, him a good look, as one of the most cool-OUNNELLOES AT LAW.

He did it with such ap-parent ease and certainty, that it was like seeing a bird fly or a spider walk the ceiling —not to be wondered at for that kind of creature. more startling (better enabling one to imagine himself in the performer's place) if he were to do it in common clothes. Locking scarcely larger than a butterfly as he resched the opposite above, Biondin remained fifteen or twenty minutes out of sight, and then the pistol was fired to announce his return.

He came quietly on to the centre, where he stopped to lie down at full length on the rope, and execute various postures and gymnastics; and between this and his reaching our shore again, he made several pretended trips, as if losing his balance—the screams of the affrighted ladics, at this, very comically varying the bund. As he came up the slaant of the rope again, I saw that his lips were tightly drawn together and his features were rigidly set with the mental exertion, and it was an expression of face that would be worth painting as a type of determined will. Through all the anxiety of a spectator's suspense, I could not help admiring the little man exceedingly, and I was the first to give him a hand as he stepped on the cliff. It was a cold, clammy grip that he gave me in return, and his fingers lelt by and wet. Everybody who could reach him gave him a shake of the hand on his way to the shanty, and the enthusiasm for him seems the shanty, and the enthusiasm for him sewer children, and resides at Niagara, having adopted it as his theather of performance. The Marshalls are just now quite busy taking the decennial census of the United States.

The questions to be asked are very numerous, many of them relating to what are usually considered private family affairs. Here are a fame of them. DRINCE Imperial Champagne, few of them:
INTERROGATORIES TO BE PUT TO LADIES. FROM DE VENOGE & CO., EPERNAT, FRANCE.

1. How many new dresses does your husband allow you a year, and how often was your last winter bounet "done up" before you had another?

2. Are you almost, or quite worried to death by Bridget, and how often does she demand a day out?

3. How many consins has Bridget, to the best of your knowledge and belief, and how much crockery does "the cat" destroy per annum?

4. How many evenings in the week is your husband detained late at the "Office or Store" on business, and does he belong to a Lodge? If so, how many "special meetings" does he stitud in a mouth, and has he ever been called upon to six ap with a sick brother?

5. Does he smoke? Does he chew? Is he in the habit, after having been kept late at the "Office," "Store" or "Lodge," of saking copious drafts of ice water in the morning?

6. Does he show you to open his letters?

7. Does he ever grumble when asked to take you to the Opers, and it he limited in his ideas on the subject of gloves?

8. What are the ages of your most intimate female friends, and do you suspect any of them of being "no chickens," their assertions to the contrary notwithstanding?

9. Stake your ideas in full in reference to "pin-money."

10. The Irish in Italy.

Though we should gladly see Irishmen pulling the trigger or flourishing the shillelagh in a better cause than the Pope's, yet as they have deliberately preferred that side of the quarrel, we confess it gratifies us highly to see them worthly sustaining the character of their country. The newspapers of the continent, Italian, Austrian and French, are already full of the exploits of the gallait adventurers from the Grosen Isla, who are already beginning to divide the admiration of the world with Garibaldi and his followers. Indeed, it appears to us that already the Irish volunteers have eclipsed tife Italians. Garibaldi's troops have certainly exhibited as much provess as was wanting for their triumph, but from the day the expedition set out, we look in vain for the exuberent valor of the boys from Limerick and Tipperary. Garibaldi's men threshed the Nespolitans, but commend us to the heroes who have shown that they can threah themselves. OMESTIC EXCHANGE DEPART We draw Sight or Time Hills on the principal cities to Union, available in eary part of the Union States of annua, and have made arrangements by which we are exhed to order by Telegraph the payment of Hotes, Acceptane, Accounts, So., in New York. apoutans, but commend us to the heroes who have shown that they can thrash themselves. An Austrian journal, the Wanderer, informs us that "on the arrival of a detachment of Irish volunteers at Macersta, they got up a fight aimong themselves, and hammered away at each other's skulls with so much good will that the conductors were confored to interfere. STOCK DEPARTMENT. We buy and sell on Commission either at Chicago, or through our Agents, at New York, State, City, County, Bailway, &c., Jionda and Stock. Our connections in New York are such as to insure prompt and justicious attention to any order orientated to don't care. as each other's skulls with so much good will that the gendarmes were ordered to interfere. And interfere they did, and, we are proud to say, bot without impunity, for "several of the gendarmes were socialy manied by the combatants, who did not like to have their sport interrupted!" The truth is, we have no manner of doubt, that the Papal government had arranged this affray with the police, in order to make their Irish friends at home as soon as possible, on landing in the Papal dominions. It was not only a delicate compliment to the volunteers, but a capital stroke of policy, for when the news of the fun to be had at Macerata had traversed Ireland, the magic effect may easily be foreseen. All the young blood will be off to Italy on finding that his holiness, in addition to other attractions for the Irish, has got a police to be mailed, like the best of Protestant governments. MARINE JOURNAL.

charged with drawing up regulations necessary for a good administration and arranging the details of the receipts and expenditures of the State.

The Times says the promined Neapolitan Constitution comes too late.

The Journal Det Debate expresses surprise at the extraordinary language of the London papers respecting the review of volunteers at Hyde Fark, only 20,000 being present.

A Palerine letter says that Garibald lost upwards of $,000 men in the conflict of the 57th and 28th of May.

Garibaldh had sent an agent to London to negotiste a loan of $0,000,000 francs, the revenue of Sicily being offered as a guarantee.

The London Times of the 25th June, grants constitutions and sent of the 25th June, grants constitutions and relationship of the Hingdom of Naples; general amnesty is accorded to all political offenders. Spinilli is to form a Government and statutes directly, and an agreement is to be made with Sardinis for the adoption of the tri-color flag, and analogous institutions for Sicily, with a Royal Prince and Viceroy.

The correspondent of the London Herald says the greatest endeavors are being made by the Neapolitan Government to induce Victor Emanuel to accept the offers of firendship from the King of Naples, and that the granting of a Constitution to the Kingdom of Naples is at the instigation of the Emperor Napoleon.

The movements of Garibaldi are, however, more rapid than those of Diplomacy. Should be a useless sacrifice of life, as the garrison is tempted in and cannot get out of the fort. If Naples falls Messins falls as a matter of corress. Advices from Vienna announce that the Austrian Government is making preparations for war. The quantity of ammunition that appears daily passing through Trieste is enormous. Four borys de armes are already complete, and the fifth is shortly expected. There are 70,000 men established in one entreuphed samp at Pescheira and 40,000 are in position on the frontiers of Romagea.
